

The Blossom Wall

Retaining Walls on E 72nd at train overpass
Artist Ouizi (Louise Jones) created this mural to bring life to the retaining walls on E 72nd St. The design highlights plants, insects, and birds found in the Lakefront Nature Preserve and gardens throughout St Clair Superior.

The Deep End of Lake Erie

Retaining Walls on E 72nd at i90 overpass
Ouizi's upcoming mural will welcome residents and visitors to Lake Erie with a scene of aquatic plants and fish - including rainbow trout, walleye, and channel catfish. This mural will be completed in the late summer of 2025.

Welcome to St Clair Superior

7121 St Clair Ave
Dayz Whun created a scene on the wall of Angela's Restaurant to give a glimpse into the life of St Clair Superior: sailing at E. 55th Marina, rooting for The Ohio State Buckeyes, family time, music, and academic achievement.

Faces of St Clair Superior

Along St Clair Ave between E 55th and E 72nd
Artist McKinley Wiley presents St Clair Superior community members with his banners that line St Clair Avenue. Every other banner features a different language spoken in the community that says "one community, many cultures."

Birds in Bloom

6510 St Clair Ave
Dayz Whun created this mural in collaboration with St Clair Superior Development Corporation and LAND Studio. It depicts nature that surrounds the community, including colorful birds like blue jays, finches, and Ohio's state bird - the cardinal.

From St Clair With Love

6517 St Clair Ave
Artist Aawful Aaron created this mural in collaboration with support from Cuyahoga Arts and Culture to represent unity and the power of community to transcend.

guide

There's no better way to explore St. Clair Superior neighborhood than through public art. Whether touring on foot, bike, or car, this guide will bring you to popular spots and hidden gems throughout this vibrant community.

Hope Sketch 6419 St Clair Ave
Daniella Rivi Uva created this mural in collaboration with St Clair Superior Development Corporation and Cuyahoga Arts and Culture. It includes messages from community members about what they like about their neighborhood and brief descriptions of themselves.

Guardian 4821 Superior Ave
Artist Beau Stanton was inspired by Cleveland's transportation guardians and incorporated the iconic figure, as well as natural elements from the Great Lakes, into his large mural which was made in collaboration with Graffiti HeArt.

The Land of Blazing Your Own Trail 4050 Superior Ave
Isaiah "Starbeing" Williams created this mural in collaboration with Destination Cleveland and Graffiti HeArt for their Murals Across the City initiative.

Black Family: When I Get Home 3859 Superior Ave
Antwone Washington's mural tells the story of a Black man coming home from a day in society where he faces discrimination, and being greeted with love, peace, and happiness by his family.

Noodle Bowl Mural 3142 Superior Ave
"What if there's a noodle bowl that is 10-feet high?" asks Chi Irena Wong with her playful mural that sits between LJ Shanghai and #1 Pho. The artist hopes this mural encourages her audience to enjoy a good bowl of noodles with friends and family.

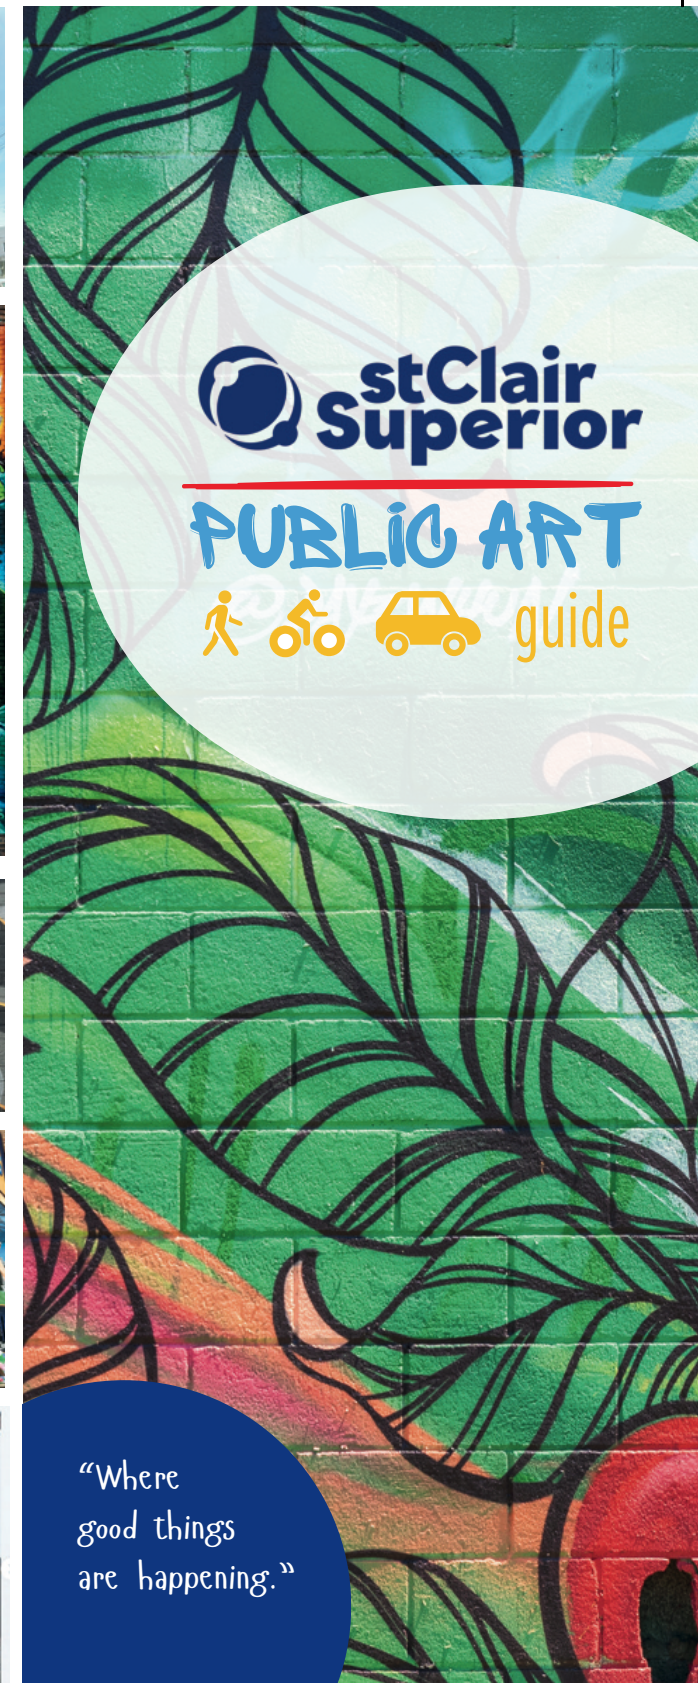

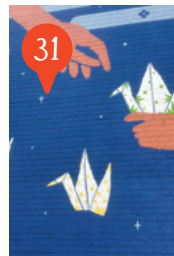

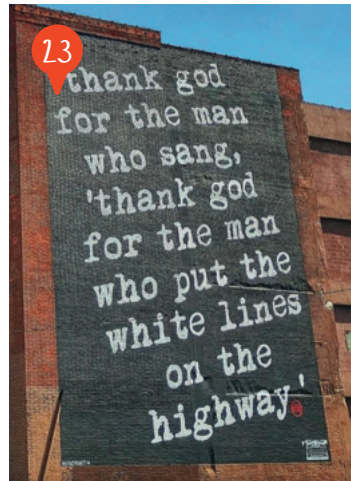

Triumph 2999 Payne Ave
Triumph (of Heaven, Earth, and the Cosmos) is an illustrative odyssey created by artist Wongface (Jordan Wong). The Chinese character for "you" at the center provides a reminder of the brilliance of one's existence.
